Certificate of Completion

OF

Advanced Facilitator Certification

IS PRESENTED TO

Troy Hokanson

Advanced Facilitator Certification is offered by invitation only to University of Phoenix faculty who have taught at the University for five or more years, have facilitated at least 40 courses, and are in good standing with the University. Those selected for the program complete an intensive four-week training experience that explores concepts, techniques and tools related to enhancing and elevating course delivery and facilitation. Having successfully completed this program, the bearer of this certificate is now recognized by the title of Certified Advanced Facilitator.

University of Phoenix®

COMPLETED ON

8/7/12

PRESENTED BY

[redacted]

Russ Paden

Public copy • Identifiers or signatures redacted where applicable